"CARNEVALONE" OF CHIVASSO 2017

The big parade of "Carnevalone" of Chivasso, whose tradition dates back to 1951, is one of the most important in the region: it involves over 40 floats and about 4,000 masks and appearing in a really unique gala in Piemonte. The Carnival plays an historical meaning related to the figure of the "Abbà", male personage who in the XIV century, at the head of a Brotherhood of revelers, resorted during the Carnival period a taxes and levies of various kinds. In 1434, when the sense of the measure was passed, the Brotherhood took on religious connotations and the Abbà, besides distributing sweets and oranges, has enjoyed certain prerogatives like that to judge about disputes or release prisoners. Sunday 12: historical reenactment of investiture of the Abbà; Thursday 23: solemn coronation of "Bela Tolera"; Friday 24: concert in honor of Bela Tolera; Saturday 25: "apericena" in music; Sunday 26: feast of charity beans and carnival parade; Monday 27: "Carnevalebimbi", night parade and "Messer Carnival" bonfire; Sunday 5: "Gran Carnevalone".
